

Making DECISIONS Based on God's SPECIFIC PERSONAL PROMISES

Jerry and Marilyn Fine are lay people who have taught God's Word in the USA and abroad for over forty years. During a thirty-year career as government contractors, they traveled to every part of the country, retiring early to invest more time in making disciples. The Fines are authors of One on One with God, a tool used around the world to make disciples who make disciples.

Christians often struggle with discerning God's will in their everyday decisions. In Making Decisions Based on God's Specific Personal Promises, Jerry and Marilyn Fine draw on years of relationship and intimate fellowship with the Lord to share principles from God's Word and their own experiences that will make godly decision making much easier.

"I have always believed in the general promises of God that a Christian can use as guidance for decisions. However, I had difficulty with the concept of a God who makes specific and personal promises to a particular person. In fact, as I read this book I found myself saying, 'This can't be true.' But the more I studied and viewed the specific promises of God in the overall context of His Word, I could not deny that it had to be true! That is why I encourage you to read this book. No, I beg you to open its pages and let the Fines' life stories and God's Word pour into you. I began reading as a skeptic and finished as an enthusiastic believer in a God who wants to guide me step by step, through His Word, one promise at a time."

"This book is, in my opinion, much needed because everywhere I go, people are still asking the question of Thomas: 'How can we know the way?' (John 14:5)"
